

Dr. Martin “Marty” Pollio

Superintendent

Dr. Martin “Marty” Pollio was appointed superintendent of the Jefferson County Public School District effective April 1, 2018. Dr. Pollio had served as acting superintendent since July 2, 2017.

For 20 years, Dr. Pollio has dedicated his career to serving the students of JCPS. He is a long-time administrator and educator whose focus is improving culture and climate across the district, increasing student achievement, and implementing deeper learning strategies to make lessons come alive for students and teachers.

Dr. Pollio began his career with JCPS in 1997 as a social studies teacher at Shawnee High School. He went on to serve as a teacher and assistant principal at Waggener High School before taking the helm as principal of Jeffersontown High School from 2007-2015. Dr. Pollio was the principal of Doss High School when he was selected as the acting superintendent.

In July 2021, Dr. Pollio was named the Kentucky 2022 Superintendent of the Year by the Kentucky Association of School Administrators (KASA). KASA is the largest school administrator group in Kentucky, representing more than 3,200 education leaders from across the commonwealth.

Dr. Pollio received his undergraduate degree from Indiana University and his master’s degree from Eastern Kentucky University. He earned his doctorate from the University of Louisville in 2012.

Dr. Pollio and his wife, Jessica, are the parents of one daughter who is a JCPS student.
